

Angels of Iron

Macnab

Give up your blade, give up your gun, it's not worth it in the end,
Endless nights, endless pain wash over you in waves.
Put your trust in a future beyond the smoking gun,
A new tomorrow is today, arise to face the sun.

With Angels of Iron (x4)

So many times you've wondered down that long and dangerous road,
A knife in the dark, blood on your hands, is this the way to go?
Put your hope in a future beyond the bloodied blade,
A new tomorrow is today, don't let it fade away.

With Angels of Iron (x4)

*Put it all behind you, it's not worth it in the end.
Put it all behind you, rise to face the sun*

Storms rage around you, feels like there is nowhere to hide,
Just another survivor need somebody by your side.
Hope is in the heart, hope is on its way,
A new tomorrow is today, don't let it fade away.
